Dear friends and colleagues,

As PA Foundation president, I am in the unique position of seeing what goes on behind the scenes. I want you to know that I am proud of what I see, especially our volunteers in action. It is inspiring to witness PAs stepping up to give their time to our mission. In 2016 our volunteer base grew by almost 200 percent, as PAs dedicated their time to reviewing grants and scholarships, serving at fundraising events, and of course leading our Board of Trustees.

Equipped with grant funding from the Foundation, PAs used their clinical expertise and compassion to address challenging health issues in their communities, including diabetes, mental health and smoking cessation. They stepped outside of their comfort zones and the boundaries of their practices to provide medical services to the underserved within the U.S. and internationally.

In 2016, students from 14 PA programs in 12 states and the District of Columbia received scholarships. As donors, you are supporting the next generation of PA leaders. In addition, our AAPA past presidents stood up to endow a scholarship that will endure over time and recognize students who demonstrate leadership in their communities. Take a few minutes to review the highlights of 2016. As you do so, take pride in knowing that your donations support PA-led philanthropy that is making a difference locally and globally.

We are honored by your generosity and continuous support.

With sincere gratitude,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Richard Rohrs". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Richard" and last name "Rohrs" clearly distinguishable.

Richard C. Rohrs, PA-C, DFAAPA
2016-2017 President

GRANT PROJECT SPOTLIGHTS

Wayne State University

Special Olympics Health Appraisals • 2016 IMPACT Grant Recipient

“Special Olympics health appraisals have given hundreds of athletes in Detroit the opportunity to participate in games that promote their health and confidence. Wayne State University PA students have worked together to educate this special population and promote healthcare in this underserved community.”

– Lindsay Gietzen, PA-C
Assistant Professor, Wayne State University PA Program

Wayne State University used its 2016 IMPACT Grant to increase availability and supplies for Special Olympics health appraisals and foster PA student involvement with intellectually impaired populations. Through this project, Wayne State PA students conducted pre-sport health appraisals for Special Olympics athletes in the Detroit area, reviewing the athletes' medical history, medications and allergies and performing physical evaluations that accounted for athletes' cognitive, behavioral and physical impairments. IMPACT Grant funding was utilized to sustain the existing program and improve health screenings, particularly through the development of age and cognitive-appropriate patient education materials.

The Dream Project, Inc.

The Dream Project, Mozambique • 2016 Robert K. Pedersen
Global Outreach Grant Recipient

“There have been no other programs available for our village of thousands,’ the villagers told us. The villagers were skeptical we would really help. However, the simple hand washing tippy tap, preventive health teaching, model farm, treatment for malaria—each have planted a small seed of hope.”

– Julia Uliano, PA-C
Founder, The Dream Project

The Dream Project is dedicated to promoting education, capacity building, and health education for vulnerable children in Cabo Delgado, Mozambique, Africa. Recognizing that capacity building through education is essential to breaking the cycle of poverty, the Dream Project team used its Robert K. Pedersen Global Outreach Grant to cultivate sustainable development by:

- Establishing a model farm and leading group training in farming to increase food production and target malnutrition
- Educating community members and leaders about hand washing and hygiene
- Conducting house-to-house visits to teach preventative health measures and answer health questions
- Providing holistic mentoring to over 1,900 children

The project also provided transportation and treatment for patients in critical need of health assistance; food, housing, and educational assistance to widows, some of whom are HIV+; and meals to thousands of children, youth, and program staff.

Weber-Morgan Health Department

One Good Thing • 2016 IMPACT Grant Recipient
(Mental Health Focus)

“In my family practice clinic I was frustrated by the lack of structure in my depression visits. I felt like I was inadequate in helping these adolescents identify triggers, negate destructive thoughts, and increase self-efficacy. My favorite [‘One Good Thing’] visit is “Kiss the Mirror,” during which the teen receives a mirror to take home and is challenged to write one good thing about themselves each day, teaching them to look for the positive attributes instead of concentrating on the negative.”

– Lisa Stephens, PA-C
Project Leader, One Good Thing

“One Good Thing” is a six-month program to treat teenage depression. The program is a series of six office visits entitled “To This Day,” “Kiss the Mirror,” “Self Confidence,” “Power Poses,” “Being Glad,” and “Self Love.” Project leader Lisa Stephens reports that early results of the program are encouraging and reaffirm the value of multi-disciplinary treatment of adolescent depression.

VOLUNTEERS

PA Foundation volunteers play a critical role in helping the organization fulfill its mission. Volunteers assist in the following capacities:

- Grant and scholarship review – The PA Foundation relies on volunteers to review and evaluate the applications it receives for its grant and scholarship programs.
- Development/fundraising activities – The PA Foundation relies on the generosity of individuals and corporate partners to sustain its programs and fulfill its mission. Our development volunteers assist the Foundation with a wide range of fundraising activities.
- Annual conference events/activities – The PA Foundation hosts several events and activities in connection with the AAPA annual conference each year. Volunteers provide on-site support for these events, help staff the PA Foundation booth, and assist with other conference-related activities as needed.

In addition, our PA Foundation Board of Trustee members serve in a volunteer leadership capacity.

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers who devote their time and expertise to our programs and activities. Your support empowers us to achieve our mission!
